FOR ALL APPLICANTS:

The Civil Rights act of 1964 prohibits discrimination in employment practice because of race, color, sex or national origin. Public Law 90-202 prohibits discrimination on the basis of age with respect to individuals who are at least 40 but less than 65 years of age. The laws of some states also prohibit some or all of the above types of discrimination, as well as some additional types, such as discrimination against the physically handicapped. All of the information requested herein is needed for bona fide occupational qualification at Wyoming Seminary.

In recognition that work with and around youth involves a great deal of responsibility, I hereby certify that I have neither withheld nor falsified any information or documents that relate to my qualifications for this position. I agree and understand that any such information, regardless of time of discovery, may cause rejection of my application for employment or immediate termination of my employment at the Wyoming Seminary School. I further understand that all information, which I have provided, or will provide, is subject to verification and I hereby grant permission, and consent, to the school to contact my former employers, supervisors, and/or educational institutions. I authorize the school to rely upon and use as it sees fit any information received from such contacts. The information provided by me, or obtained under this authorization, may be disseminated to other institutions or entities on a need-to-know basis.
