

DEAR WYOMING SEMINARY COMMUNITY,

The Wyoming Seminary Board of Trustees is pleased to announce that Thomas C. Whitworth III will be joining the Sem community as the Interim Head of School for the 2021-2022 academic year.

Mr. Whitworth has extensive administrative experience, most recently serving as Headmaster of the Darlington School in Rome, Ga., from 2005 to 2014. He was the Founding Headmaster at Flint Hill School in Oakton, Va., from 1989 to 2005. In addition, Mr. Whitworth served as Assistant Headmaster and Academic Dean at St. Stephen's School in Alexandria, Va.; Headmaster at Frederica Academy, St. Simon's Island, Ga.; Assistant Headmaster and Upper School Director at Sea Pines Academy, Hilton Head Island, S.C.

Mr. Whitworth began his career in education in Fairfax County Public Schools, Fairfax, Va., where he taught high school English and Journalism. He has also taught American Literature and has served as a College Counselor, Athletic Director, and coach for boys and girls basketball and football.

A graduate of the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, N.C., Mr. Whitworth earned a Bachelor of Arts in Journalism. He continued his education at The Citadel, Charleston, S.C., where he earned his Masters in Education, Secondary Education and Supervision and English.

Mr. Whitworth's related experience includes numerous leadership positions in academic associations. He most recently served on the Darlington School's Second Century Capital Campaign and South Rome Redevelopment Agency's Board of Directors.

"We are delighted to have Tom join the Wyoming Seminary community as our Interim Head of School," said Bill Sordoni, Chairman, Wyoming Seminary Board of Trustees. "Tom's experience in similar schools will be invaluable while we conduct our search for our next permanent leader."

He and his wife, Margo, a former elementary school teacher, are excited to join the Sem family. They are the proud parents of three grown children. They also have four grandchildren.

Wyoming Seminary's 178th academic year begins on Monday, August 30.
